In order to assure the presence of a quorum, we urge you to promptly complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, whether or not you plan to attend the Annual General Meeting in person.

Each of the matters intended to be presented to the Annual General Meeting and described in this proxy statement requires the affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast thereon. If you own shares held of record by another person and want to vote in person, you must obtain a legal proxy from the record holder and bring it to the Annual General Meeting.

ITEM 1—ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our Board currently has seven members. Our bye-laws provide that the Board shall have no less than five and no more than nine members. Our bye-laws divide the directors into three classes. The directors in a given class are elected for a term of three years, and the term of each class expires in successive years. Our Board, upon recommendation of our Governance and Nominating Committee, has nominated Irvin F. Diamond, Jeffrey I. Gillman and David R. Klunk, whose terms expire this year, to each stand again for election to the Board. If elected, each would have a three-year term expiring at the 2014 Annual General Meeting, or until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Unless you otherwise instruct us, your properly executed proxy will be voted for the election of Messrs. Diamond, Gillman and Klunk. If any nominee would be unable to serve, the enclosed proxy confers authority to vote in favor of such other person as the Board at the time recommends to serve in place of such nominee.

The board recommends that you vote “FOR” the election of Messrs. Diamond, Gillman and Klunk.

Beginning in 2011, $10,000 of the $20,000 will be paid in the common shares of the Company.

Board Leadership Structure

Our Board is lead by a Chairman. At present, the positions of President (our principal executive officer) and Chairman are held by different persons. The Board does not have a formal policy as to whether the roles of Chairman and President should be separate. At this time, the Board has determined that separating these roles and having an independent director serve as Chairman of the Board is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The President supervises and administers all of the general business and affairs of the Company and the Chairman sets the agenda for and presides over meetings of the Board.

Risk Management

The Board believes that risk management is an important component of our corporate strategy. Although the full Board has responsibility for the general oversight of risks, it primarily conducts its risk oversight function through committees, including the Audit Committee and the Governance and Nominating Committee, as well as other committees. The Board is regularly informed through committee reports about our risks and discusses and reviews with management major policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management. Finally, the Board believes the separated roles of Chairman and President (our principal executive officer) assists us in our ability to implement major policies addressing our risks.

Meetings and Committees of the Board

Our Board has determined that Messrs. Diamond, Gillman, Harris, Klunk and Lillie are independent members of our Board under the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules.

There were eight standing committees of the Board during 2010, constituted as follows:

Committee	Members
Audit Committee	Messrs. Gillman (chair), Lillie and Klunk
Business Development Committee	Messrs. Diamond (chair), Grayston, Harris and Thompson
Finance Committee	Messrs. Klunk (chair), Grayston and Harris
Investment Committee	Messrs. Lillie (chair) and Thompson
Governance and Nominating Committee	Messrs. Harris (chair), Thompson and Gillman
Shareholder and Public Relations Committee	Messrs. Diamond (chair), Gillman and Lillie
Strategic Planning Committee	Messrs. Grayston (chair), Diamond, Harris and Thompson
Underwriting, Actuarial and Reinsurance Committee	Messrs. Thompson (chair), Grayston and Harris

The eight standing committees, respectively, have and may exercise the full power of the Board, as to all matters relating to: the annual audit of our financial statements; review and approval of our fiscal year budget; our investment activity and consideration of various opportunities and options available to us; consideration of nominees to the Board; coordination of press releases and other communications with the public; ownership, transfer or redemption of our common shares; and the review and negotiation of reinsurance contracts.

Because historically our executive officers did not receive compensation from us and because only one of our executive officers began receiving such compensation in November 2009, we do not have a compensation committee. Our Board as a whole participates in the consideration of executive officer and director compensation. The Board evaluates and determines the appropriate level of executive officer and director compensation, including compensation for service as a member or chair of a Board committee. Our Board has determined that Messrs. Diamond, Gillman, Harris, Klunk and Lillie would qualify as independent under the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the "SEC") independence rules for compensation committees.

All directors attended all meetings of the Board and all meetings held by each committee of the Board on which such directors served. The Board held a total of three meetings during 2010. During 2010, the Audit Committee met six times, the Business Development Committee met one time, the Finance Committee met four times, the Investment Committee met three times, the Governance and Nominating committee met four times, the Strategic Planning Committee met three times, the Shareholder and Public Relations Committee met three times and the Underwriting, Actuarial and Reinsurance Committee met four times.

The Board has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee which is available at <http://www.amerinst.bm/letters/Audit-Committee-Charter.pdf>. The Audit Committee has the authority to consider the qualifications of our independent auditors and make recommendations to the Board as to their suitability for recommendation to the shareholders for appointment; approve any material, non-audit services to be rendered by such independent auditors; and review and resolve any differences of opinion between such independent auditors and management concerning our financial statements. The Audit Committee's functions include selecting our independent auditors; reviewing the arrangements for, and scope of, the independent auditors' examination; meeting with the independent auditors and certain of our officers to review the adequacy and appropriateness of our system of internal controls and reporting, our critical accounting policies, and our public financial disclosures; ensuring compliance with our code of ethics; and performing any other duties or functions deemed appropriate by the Board. Messrs. Gillman, Lillie and Klunk are currently the members of the Audit Committee. Our Board has determined that all of the members of the Audit Committee satisfy the independence requirements for audit committee members under the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules and that each member of the Audit Committee qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" under the rules and regulations of the SEC.

We do not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of our Board at the annual general meetings, although we strongly encourage our directors to attend such meetings. All of our directors attended the 2010 Annual General Meeting.

Board Member Nominations

The Governance and Nominating Committee operates under a written charter, which is available at <http://www.amerinst.bm/letters/Charter%20of%20the%20Governance%20and%20Nominations%20Committee.pdf>.

If you are a shareholder entitled to vote at an Annual General Meeting, you may nominate one or more persons for election as a director at the Annual General Meeting. The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider recommendations for nominees for directorships submitted by shareholders and will apply the same evaluation to such recommendations submitted by a shareholder as recommendations submitted by any other person or entity. Shareholders who wish the Governance and Nominating Committee to consider their recommendations for nominees for director should submit their recommendations in writing to the Governance and Nominating Committee in care of the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive offices, as described in the section below entitled "Shareholder Proposals for the 2011 Annual General Meeting." Our Board has determined that all of the members of the Governance and Nominating committee are independent as determined under the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules.

The Governance and Nominating Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the full Board regarding the composition and size of the Board so that the Board consists of members with the proper expertise, skills, attributes, and personal and professional backgrounds needed by the Board, consistent with applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. The Governance and Nominating Committee believes that all directors, including nominees, should possess the highest personal and professional ethics, integrity, and values, and be committed to representing the long-term interests of our shareholders. The Governance and Nominating Committee endeavors to have a Board of which all the members have experience in the accounting profession and a background in the business of professional liability insurance or its equivalent. The Governance and Nominating committee will consider, when appropriate, other criteria useful to the Company's current and prospective businesses. The Governance and Nominating Committee does not have a formal policy on diversity.

Shareholder Communications with the Board of Directors

Any shareholder or other interested party who has a concern or inquiry regarding the conduct of the Company may communicate directly with either the Company's independent directors or the full Board. The chair of the Shareholder and Public Relations Committee will receive all such communications on behalf of the non-employee directors and the full Board. Communications may be confidential or anonymous, and may be submitted in writing to the chair of the Shareholder and Public Relations Committee, AmerInst Insurance Group, Ltd., c/o Cedar Management Limited, 25 Church Street, Continental Building, P.O. Box HM 1601, Hamilton, HM GX, Bermuda. All written communications will be received and processed by the Secretary of the Company and all substantive communications will be referred to the chair of the Shareholder and Public Relations Committee. All such communications will be reviewed and, if necessary, investigated and/or addressed by the chair of the Shareholder and Public Relations Committee and the status of such communications will be reported to the non-employee directors or the full Board on a quarterly basis.

Management has primary responsibility for the integrity of our financial information. Deloitte & Touche has audited our financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and expressed an opinion on our financial statements based on those audits. President and Chief Executive Officer of APSL	2009	—	242,000 ⁽¹⁾	242,000

(1) Consists solely of payments to Mr. Nieman in 2009 under an oral consulting agreement between Mr. Nieman and APSL.

Executive Employment Agreements

On November 24, 2009, APSL entered into an employment agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) with F. Kyle Nieman III with an initial term ending December 31, 2011 (with automatic one-year renewals) pursuant to which Mr. Nieman will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of APSL. The material terms of the Employment Agreement include the following:

- Mr. Nieman’s annual base salary during the initial term of the Employment Agreement will be no less than $250,000. He will be eligible to receive annual bonuses calculated as a percentage of annual salary based on meeting or exceeding certain revenue and operating income targets for APSL as described in the table below:

APSL Gross Commission Revenue (000):	Bonus Percentage
<$2,564	0%
$3,205	25%
$3,846	50%
$4,487	75%
$5,128	100%

APSL Net Income before taxes, intercompany charges, bonus calculations and other incentive compensation (000):	Bonus Percentage:
$ 0	0%
$ 215	25%
$ 642	50%
$1,069	75%
$1,496	100%

Bonus components will be determined separately by revenue and operating income, subject to interpolation should actual revenue and operating income fall within the specified ranges.

Mr. Nieman’s bonus will be calculated as the arithmetic mean of the two bonus components multiplied by his salary, but in no event may his bonus exceed 100% of his salary;

- Mr. Nieman will be entitled to full participation in all benefit plans and programs for which APSL’s senior officers are or shall become eligible;
- After the first full calendar year of operations and contingent upon Mr. Nieman qualifying for a bonus, Mr. Nieman will be eligible to receive options to purchase shares of Company common stock (“Common Stock”) over a five year time period at the current value of the Common Stock as of the date each option is granted;

- Effective January 1, 2010, APSL created an account on behalf of Mr. Nieman comprised of a number of phantom shares of Common Stock calculated as $1,500,000 divided by the current value of a share of Common Stock at December 31, 2009. The phantom shares are eligible for phantom dividends at the same rate paid on regular shares of Common Stock. The phantom dividends may be used only to purchase additional phantom shares. The purchase price of the phantom shares will be the then current value of the Common Stock. Mr. Nieman's interest in the phantom shares initially deposited in the account and any shares purchased with phantom dividends prior to January 1, 2015 will vest on January 1, 2015. However, such phantom shares will vest immediately if (i) the Employment Agreement is terminated by APSL at the end of the initial term or any renewal thereof, (ii) Mr. Nieman is terminated by APSL other than for cause, (iii) there is a material diminishment by APSL of Mr. Nieman's duties as President and Chief Executive Officer of APSL, (iv) there is a significant reduction by APSL of Mr. Nieman's annual compensation or benefits, or (v) there is a change-of-control of APSL other than a transaction between the Company and any of its affiliates or subsidiaries. Any phantom shares purchased by phantom dividends on or after January 1, 2015 will vest immediately. The proceeds of the phantom shares less the initial value of $1,500,000 are to be paid in cash to Mr. Nieman at age 65, if retired, or within 60 days in the event of his death or permanent disability. If Mr. Nieman is terminated other than for cause, the value of the phantom shares, less the initial value of $1,500,000, is to be paid in cash at termination. If Mr. Nieman resigns or is terminated for cause, the value of the phantom shares, if vested, less the initial value of $1,500,000, is to be paid in cash in five equal annual installments on the anniversaries of the date of termination or resignation. If there is a change in control of APSL, other than a transaction between the Company and any of its affiliates or subsidiaries, Mr. Nieman will have the right to receive the proceeds immediately. In the event of a sale or merger of the Company, for each share of phantom stock held, Mr. Nieman will be paid the per share value used in the sale or the merger;
- If APSL terminates Mr. Nieman other than for "cause," he is entitled to receive six months of his annual compensation, less all applicable and usual deductions. However, if revenue goals for the annual period preceding termination are met, Mr. Nieman is entitled to receive one year's annual compensation, less all applicable and usual deductions;
- If Mr. Nieman terminates his employment with APSL, APSL has no further obligations to Mr. Nieman, including with respect to the payment of annual compensation, benefits or any other sums other than as described in the paragraph above. However, Mr. Nieman shall be entitled to sums imposed by the terms of any plans under which he was receiving any benefits or as otherwise provided by law and the vested portion of his phantom shares. The proceeds of any phantom shares will be paid to him in five equal annual installments, the first of which would be paid 30 days after the effective date of the termination. However, Mr. Nieman would be entitled to all rights and benefits under the terms of this Employment Agreement in the event that APSL materially diminishes his duties as President and Chief Executive Officer of APSL or significantly reduces his annual compensation or benefits; and
- If Mr. Nieman terminates his employment with APSL under circumstances other than those where APSL has materially diminished his duties, during the 24-month time period immediately following such termination Mr. Nieman may not work in the State of Illinois in a managerial or executive capacity for any insurance business that is or could be competitive with APSL. In addition, during that same 24-month time period, Mr. Nieman may not solicit any then current employees of APSL to work for any insurance business by which he is then employed or in which he otherwise holds an ownership interest.
